East Zion Consolidated District Laymen's Ministry Man of Year Award

Dear Laymen, Presidents, and Brethren:

The East Zion Consolidated District Association Laymen's Movement will honor one of its own each year who has exemplified extraordinary qualities and a commitment to laymen's work in his local church and the district association. The award, which will be named at a later time, will be presented at the annual association held in August of each year.

The candidate must be active in his local church and in the District Laymen's Movement. He must also be active in his registration in the District Laymen's Discipleship Program.

Deadline for submitting a package for the candidate is July 15 of each year. The information required for consideration is:

- Resume of the Candidate
- Letter of recommendation from the candidate's Pastor.
- Letter of recommendation from the candidate's Laymen President or Laymen's Department.

All information should be submitted to one of the following brothers:

Clarence Dempsey: cdempsey3@cox.net

James Adair: jasadair@sbcglobal.net

Albert Bryant: abyrant15@cox.net

Please remember that the deadline is July 15 of each year.

Sincerely,

Brother Kelvin Mitchell,
Laymen's President
